MONDAY, JULY 29, 1793.

Whitehall, July 29.

YESTERDAY Morning a Meſſenger arrived at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with Diſpatches from the Earl of Yarmouth, dated at the Camp before Mayence, July 23, 1793, containing an Account of the Surrender of that City to His Pruſſian Majeſty on the preceding Day, with the Articles of Capitulation, of which the following is a Tranſlation.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION offered by Brigadier-General D'Oyré, Commander in Chief at Mayence, Caſſel, and the Places which are dependent upon them.

Article I.

THE French Army ſhall deliver up to His Majeſty the King of Pruſſia the City of Mayence and Caſſel, together with their Fortifications and all the Poſts which belong to them, in their preſent State; alſo the Artillery, both French and Foreign, Warlike Stores and Proviſions, thoſe Matters only excepted, which are mentioned in the following Articles.

Anſwer. Accepted.

Article II.

The Garriſon ſhall march out with all the Honors of War, carrying away their Arms, Baggage and other Effects, the private Property of the Individuals of the Garriſon.

Anſwer. Granted, on Condition that the Garriſon ſhall not ſerve, during the Space of a Year, againſt the Armies of the Allied Powers; and that if they carry away any Covered Waggons, His Pruſſian Majeſty reſerves the Right of ſearching them, in caſe he ſhould think proper.

Article III.

The Garriſon ſhall be allowed to carry away with them their Field Pieces with their Carriages.

Anſwer. Refuſed.

Article IV.

[Price Four-pence.]

Article IV.

The General Officers, private Perſons, the Commiſſaries of War, all the Directors, and thoſe employed under them, in the different Departments of the Army, and, in general, all Individuals, French Subjects, belonging to the Garriſon, ſhall carry away their Horſes, Carriages and Effects.

Anſwer. Granted.

Article V.

The Garriſon ſhall remain in the Place Forty-eight Hours after the Signature of the preſent Capitulation, and, if that Time ſhould not be ſufficient for the laſt Diviſions, a further Delay of Twenty-four Hours ſhall be granted to them.

Anſwer. Granted.

Article VI.

The Commanders in Chief ſhall be permitted to ſend one or more Agents, furniſhed with Paſsports by His Pruſſian Majeſty, to endeavour to procure the Money neceſſary for the Payment of the Debts contracted by the Army; and the French Garriſon deſires, that, until the ſaid Debts ſhall be diſcharged, or until an Arrangement ſhall be made for their Liquidation, Permiſſion may be granted them to leave Hoſtages, who may rely on His Majeſty's Protection.

Anſwer. Granted.

Article VII.

The Garriſon of Mayence and it's Dependencies, immediately after their Evacuation, ſhall begin their March towards France in ſeveral Columns, and ſhall ſet out at different Times. Each Column ſhall be furniſhed with a Pruſſian Eſcort for their Safety to the Frontier. General D'Oyré ſhall have the Liberty of ſending in Advance the Staff Officers and the Commiſſaries of War, in order to provide for the Subſiſtance and Accommodation of the French Troops.

Anſwer. Granted.

Article VIII.

In caſe the Horſes and Carriages belonging to the French Army ſhould not be ſufficient for the Tranſport of the Camp Equipage and other Effects mentioned in the preceding Articles, they ſhall be furniſhed with others in the Country, upon paying for them.

Anſwer. Granted.

Article IX.

As the Removal of the Sick, and eſpecially of the Wounded, cannot be done by Land Carriage without endangering their Lives, a ſufficient Number of Boats ſhall be furniſhed, at the Expence of the French Nation, for conveying them by Water to Thionville and Metz, taking the neceſſary Precautions for the Subſiſtance of thoſe honorable Victims of the War.

Anſwer. Granted.

Article X.

Until the entire Evacuation of the French Army, none of the Inhabitants who are now out of Mayence, ſhall be permitted to return thither.

Anſwer. Granted.

Article XI.

Immediately after the Signature of the preſent Capitulation the Troops of the beſieging Army may take Poſſeſſion of the following Poſts, viz.

Fort Charles.
Fort Welſch.
Fort Elizabeth.
Fort St. Philip.
The Double Tenail.
Fort Linſenberg.
Fort Hauptſtein.
Fort Mars.
The Iſland of St. Peter, and the Two Gates of Caſtel leading to Francfort and to Wiſbaden.

They may moreover occupy, conjointly with the French Troops, the Gate of Newthor, and the Extremity of the Bridge of the Rhine adjacent to the Right Bank of that River.

Anſwer. Accepted.

Article XII.

Colonel Douay, Director of the Arſenal, Lieutenant-Colonel Riboiſſieri, Sub-Director, and Lieutenant-Colonel Varine, Chief Officer of Engineers, ſhall deliver over, with as little Delay as poſſible, to the principal Officers of Artillery and Engineers of the Pruſſian Army, the Arms, Ammunition, Plans, &c. relative to the Duties with which they ſhall be reſpectively charged.

Anſwer. Accepted.

Article XIII.

A Commiſſary at War ſhall in like Manner be appointed to receive the Magazines and Effects which they contain.

Anſwer. Accepted.

Article XIV.

Additional Article.

The Deſerters from the Combined Armies ſhall be ſtrictly delivered up.
